E. A. Perry, saloon keeper at Nicholson and Cumberland Streets, was charged in the Police Court this morning with selling liquor on Sunday, July 28th. The witnesses against him were negroes and the police officers. The former were unwilling and unknowing witnesses. They did not know much, except that they obtained whiskey in the rear of the place for a friend, and they were not sure of that till Justice Taylor became sternly inquisitive.

The police officers testified that they inquisitive.

The police officers testified that they had seen the traffic in liquors and the defense of the accused was composed of denials that his place was open on that day. The sentence was $500 and costs and sixty days in jail for selling liquors on Sunday. The defendant appealed the case to the Corporation Court to get it before a jury in many instances under the old law the heavy fines were reduced or removed by juries in that court. The new law is under trial now.

TOO OLD FOR THE SCHOOL.

TOO OLD FOR THE SCHOOL William Schultz was not taken to the Laurel Reformatory this morning. He was sentenced to stay there for three years by Justice Taylor, of the Police Court, for stealing brass fittings from a foundry. The agent of the Laurel School heard from one of the boys already there that Schultz is older than the age he had given here, and came here to investigate before taking the boy to the school. The agent is satisfied the boy is over nineteen, and as boys are not admitted after they are seventeen years of age he reteen, and as boys are not admitted after they are seventeen years of age he re-fused to take the boy from the jail. Now the question is, what will be done with the boy? He was tried and sentenced. He can't be tried again for the same ofo he must stay in jail till Justice makes some other disposition of

TOANO, VA., July 30.—The Toano Bank (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

TOANO, VA., July 30.—The Toano Bank building, which is being erected on the lot next to W. R. Branch's large brick store, will be completed by August 15th. There has been much delay in the work on the building, the contractor having a good deal of trouble in getting pressed bricks, which was used in the front wall of the building, which is 34 feet by 40 feet, and two stories. The first floor has two large rooms which will be occupied by the Toano Bank, a branch office of the Peninsula Bank of Williamsburg, and Dr. H. N. Stephenson for a "drug store," and a small room for the postoffice. There will be four office rooms and a large dancing hall on the second floor. At a meeting of the directors of the bank last Tuesday, Miss Hannah Wilkinson was elected cashier. This is something new for Virginia, to have a woman as capiter in a bank.

A delegation from Toano will go to Williamsburg to-morrow to meet with other delegations from this legislative district, where they will wait on Mr. A. J. Barnes, former chairman of the Democratic party of James City, and to urgehim to come out for the Legislature.

County Court is in session and will last from ten to fitteen days. The case of the Commonwealth against Clifton Branham, charged with killing his wife, will occupy the attention of the court for the next four or five days. Branham is ably defended by Judge T. M. Alderson, Hon. R. P. Bruce, John A. Hughes and Judge W. H. Bond, while Commonwealth's Attorney Dotson will be assisted by Hon. O. M. Vlears in the prosecution.

Branham has already served fourteen years in the Kentucky penitentiary for murder.

It seemed for a time that local option would be the means of decreasing crime in this country, but since last Saturday morning there have been five men killed and three wounded, and as Wise already holds the record over all the other counties in the State of having the largest number in the State prison, it seems that it is going to keep it up.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., July 80.—Report from the farmers in the peanut districts seem to indicate that the crop this year will be exceedingly short. The acreage planted was not in excess of that of last year, and the prevailing wet weather in nany localities has rendered it impossi ble for the farmers to keep their crop free from grass with the existing scarcity of labor. Many farmers are compelled to weed the crop, and even at this unus places to get help. Children nine and ten years of age are often paid prices in excess of those paid men two or three excess of those paid men two of the years ago.

The stock on hand in Petersburg at present is about 15,000 bags, a smaller amount than has been on hand at this time of the year for many seasons. The prices are firm at ninety cents, with every indication that these prices will be increased before the coming crop is ready for the market.

for the market.

The tobacco outlook is somewhat brighter. The season seems to have been more favorable to its cultivation, and many of the leading farmers report that the crop this year will be an average one. Just what success has been made towards inducing farmers to raise flue-cured tobacco cannot be known definitely at this time. There are doubtless many farmers who have given the matter a trial this year.

ENLARGING ITS PLANT.

The Petersburg Wood Supply Company is enlarging its plant and installing new machinery. This company under the management existing since the purchase from the Bradshuw estate has built up a business that necessitates enlarging its facilities. The plant manufactures mainly barrel heads.

UNEVENTFUL DAY

Offenders Not So Bad on Justice John Showing Consideration

Justice John had an uneventful day yes-Justice John had an inevention and year terday. He got a little peep at rest, after a long succession of busy days.
Not a case had the semblance of importance or a unique feature.
Drunks and disorders were the order

Drunks and disorders were the order of the day.

Major Bachelor was charged with being drunk and incidentally indulging in a game of craps. He was fined $2.50.

John Drew, for fighting in the street with Carrie Jones was fined $2.50. Justice John's usual price for a man to strike a woman is $10, but when the woman is an aggressor he taxes both the same, especially when it is shown that she succeeded in putting a flat nose on him.

NO TRACE OF CONVICTS

Thought to Be Doubling Back and to Have Food and Shiller. (Hy Associated Press.)
SACRAMENTO, CAL., July 30.—A special to the Bee from the Folsom State

cial to the Bee from the Folsom State prison says that the latest reports received show that the milital have had absolutely no trace of the escaped convicts since Monday night. The fugitives are thought to be doubling back from the vicinity of Lotus to the neighborhood of Rattle Snake Bar and Zentgraff mine. The country in which the fugitives are supposed to be has a number of deserted cabins and several orchards, which will afford them shelter and food.

Guard Cochrane, who was stabbed in the prison fight is aligntly worse, and his recovery is still doubtful.
